

Written Consent of Parents for Children Protection

Child protection policy is pursued by Kang Chiao International School as the mission and concept; In accordance with the Article 19 "Protection from Abuse and Neglect" and Article 34 "Protection from Sexual Exploitation" of United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), we hope become the safe haven of students, and we also pay attention to the partnership between parents and school at the same time. Hence, we will contact parents to jointly solve and protect students' safety by cooperation when finding the following child protection-related events:

1. students are abused and neglected clearly or ignorantly inside and outside the school and at home, such as physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse or negligence in care, etc.
2. students are treated unjustly, such as sexual behavior, economic exploitation, etc. to meet others' interests.
3. Inappropriate treatment and interaction between adults and students.

Please read the child protection policy of school in details for the detailed code of conduct and interpretation.
